Here's a Safe and Easy Way by Which To Whom It May Concern

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Court of Common Council of the City of Norwich, held on the 3d day of April, 1916, the following proposition was submitted by the Committee on Public Works and the final resolution was adopted, and you are hereby notified to appear at the time and place appointed in said final resolution and be heard in relation to the matter contained in said report.

Norwich, Conn., April 17, 1916.

Attest: ARTHUR G. CROWELLA.
City Clerk and Clerk of the Court of Common Council of the City of Norwich.

To the Court of Common Council of the City of Norwich, Conn.:

The Committee on Public Works, to which was referred, at a meeting of the Court of Common Council heid March 6th, 1916, the petition of Joseph W. Curtis and others, asking that a sidewalk be ordered built on the northeasterly side of Woodmansee avenue, from West Thames street to and scross Woodmansee avenue and to a point 40 feet southerly on the westerly side of Woodmansee avenue, in said City, begieve to report:

feet southerly on the westerly side of Woodmansee avenue, in said City, besteave to report:

That it has given the matter its attention and is of the opinion that the sidewalk on the northeasterly side of Brown street and the westerly side of Woodmansee avenue, from West Thames street to and across Woodmansee avenue, and to a point 40 feet southerly on the westerly side of Woodmansee avenue, should be ordered built, and it recommends the passage of the following resolutions:
Resolved. That the Town of Norwich, Vine S. Stetson, Norwich Land Improvement Company and Joseph W. Curtis, owners of land abutting on the northeasterly side of Woodmansee avenue, from the westerly line of West Thames street, to and across Woodmansee avenue, and to a point 40 feet southerly on the westerly side of Woodmansee avenue hereby ordered to lay a stone curb or a cement concrete curb, and duly form with asphalt concrete at their own expense, the sidewalks abutting their respective premises in accordance with the grades and lines as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of the northeasterly line of Brown street and the westerly line of Soot below the top of the water table of the West Thames schoolhouse and running thence northwesterly by the northeasterly line of Brown street as follows:

35.4 feet rising 58 foot, thence 37.7 feet rising 2.5 fect, thence srly line of Brown street on grades as follows:

35.4 feet rising 58 foot, thence 37.7 feet rising 2.5 feet, thence
41.8 feet rising 2.5 feet, thence
91.8 feet rising 1.2 feet, thence

50 feet rising 4.9 feet, thence southerly by the westerly line of Woodmansee avenue 40 feet falling 2.3 feet, on or before the first day of October, 1916.
The above grades and lines are the grades and lines of the back side of said sidewalks, and said sidewalks are laid out six feet southwesterly and easterly of the above described lines.
Resolved, That provided said sidewalks are not formed with asphalt concrete, and with a stone curb or a cement concrete curb, as directed in the preceding resolution, to the satisfaction and acceptance of the Street Commissioner, on or before the first day of October, 1916, the Street Commissioner is hereby directed to lay and form said sidewalks and curbs, in accordance with the intent of the foregoing order,
the just expenses of the work so done
by the respective owners above named neglecting said order.

—Louis M. Grice. AN APRIL DAY.

Breezes strongly rushing, when the Northwest stirs, Prophesying Summer to the shaken firm;
Blowing brows of forest, where soft airs are free,
Crowned with heavenly glimpses of the solning sea;
Buds and breaking blossoms, that sunny April yields;
Ferns and fairy grasses, the children in the fields;
In the fragrant hedges hollow brambled gloom
Pure primroses paling into perfect bloom; Round the elm's rough stature, climbing dark and high,
Ivy-fringes trembling against a golder
sky;
Woods and windy ridges darkening in
the glow; the glow;
The rosy sunset bathing all the vol-below:
